

JOSEP SÁNCHEZ LLIBRE

Graduate in Business Administration and Master in Business Administration from ESADE.

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Entrepreneur – Vice President of Conservas DANI, S.A.U.

President of Foment del Treball and Vice President of the Spanish Confederation of Business Organizations (CEOE) since 2018.

Member of the Parliament of Catalonia (3rd and 4th legislatures).

Senator (4th legislature).

Member of the Congress of Deputies and spokesperson for several Committees (5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th legislatures).

RECOGNITIONS

Award from the Association of Self-Employed Workers of Catalonia (2003).

Bernardo O'Higgins Medal, awarded by the President of the Government of Chile, Eduardo Frei Ruiz-Tagle, in recognition of Spanish investments in the country (2004).

Honorary Member of the Illustrious Official College of Business and Accounting Graduates of Barcelona (2009).

Medal of Honor from Foment del Treball for his Business Career (2009).

Gold and Diamond Badge from RCD Espanyol (2011).

Gold Medal of the Order of the Chambers of Commerce from the Spanish Chamber of Commerce Council (2014).

Red Cross Medal for his personal commitment and involvement with the institution and its humanitarian emergency program "Cruz Roja Responde" (2020).

Medal of Honor from Automobile Barcelona (2021).

Honorary Member of the Register of Auditor Economists of the General Council of Economists "in recognition of his professional career and his contributions to the economy in the field of auditing" (2021).

Gaudí Gresol Award for Notoriety and Excellence – "Business Leadership" category (2022).

Honorary Academician of the Royal European Academy of Doctors (2023).

"Tu Economía" Award from La Razón for professional career in favour of companies (2025).